

PRIVACY POLICY

1. Introduction

This Privacy Policy applies to all information collected by National League of Young Men, Inc. (“NLYM”) through this web site (the “Site”). Although the Site may provide links to third-party web sites, such third party web sites are not covered by this Privacy Policy. These links are provided for your convenience only, and NLYM assumes no responsibility for the privacy or security of information you provide to any third party through linked web sites or any other means. “Third Parties” mean any person or entity other than NLYM and you.

2. What Information NLYM Collects

NLYM's web server collects non-personally identifiable information from you during the course of your visit to the Site. This information may include general information regarding your Internet Service Provider and host, your IP address, the content on the Site you access, the platform operating system and web browser you use, and the date, time, and duration of your visit to the Site.

This information may be collected through the use of a “cookie.” Cookies are small text files that are stored on your hard drive to store your preferences. Cookies themselves do not contain any personally identifiable information. You can choose to refuse any cookie by following the procedure suggested by your particular web browser. You may delete NLYM cookies from your computer, but doing so may impair your use of the Site.

NLYM may also use “web beacons” on the Site from time to time. Web beacons are small pieces of code placed on a web page to track or monitor the behavior and collect data about the visitors viewing a web page. For example, web beacons can be used to count the users who visit a web page or to deliver a cookie to the browser of a visitor viewing that page.

NLYM may also use certain statistical analysis services, such as Google Analytics, to generate statistics in the aggregate about visitors to the Site. Google Analytics is a web analytics service provided by Google, Inc. (“Google”). Google Analytics uses cookies to analyze how users use the Site.

NLYM may also collect information from you through your voluntary submission. For instance, such information may be submitted through your use of an online form to register with NLYM to access and use certain portions of the Site, or by sending NLYM an email to request certain services from NLYM. In other cases, such information may be the content or information you post in a web-forum, in a chat room, or through other interactive or “social networking” portions of the Site (collectively referred to herein as the “Interactive Portions” of the Site). The information you voluntarily submit may include information which may be used to personally identify you, such as your name, physical address, telephone number, e-mail address, credit card number, and/or tax identification number.

3. How NLYM Uses the Information It Collects

NLYM uses information it collects to process your requests and transactions, offer or furnish additional services, personalize the types of information you receive from NLYM, assess trends in the use of the Site, develop content and functionality that helps serve our users needs, and improve the service NLYM provides. Any information you submit using the Interactive Portions of the Site, even personally-identifiable information, may be automatically publicly displayed on the Site.

NLYM's use of the non-personally-identifiable information it collects through the Site is unrestricted. NLYM may sell or license non-personally-identifiable information or aggregated information (information derived from personally-identifiable information, but not containing any personally identifying details) to Third Parties.

In the event NLYM uses Google Analytics, the information generated by the cookie about your use of the Site (including your IP address) will be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. Google will use this information for the purpose of evaluating your use of the Site, compiling reports on web site activity for NLYM and providing other services relating to web site activity and internet usage. Google may also transfer this information to third parties where required to do so by law, or where such third parties process the information on Google's behalf. Google will not associate your IP address with any other data held by Google.

NLYM will not use your personally-identifiable information in a manner different from that stated at the time of collection (the "Purpose") without first attempting to notify you via the last e-mail address NLYM has in its records. NLYM will only share your personally-identifiable information with Third Parties that assist NLYM in carrying out the Purpose. Such Third Parties shall be required to use your personally-identifiable information only to assist in the Purpose and to maintain the confidentiality of your personally-identifiable information. You therefore should be very careful about providing any personally identifying information using the Interactive Portions of the Site.

NLYM reserves the right at all times to (a) disclose any information it reasonably believes necessary to satisfy any law, regulation, government request, court order, subpoena or other legal process, (b) edit or remove any information, in whole or in part, that in NLYM's sole discretion is objectionable, disruptive to the Site or in violation of the Terms and Conditions, and (c) use any information to prevent harm or injury, to prevent fraud, or to protect NLYM's legal interests.

4. Choice

You can request modifications or removal of your personally-identifiable information from NLYM's databases by contacting NLYM at the phone number or e-mail address listed below. To honor your request, NLYM will need the exact information you want removed. NLYM will use reasonable efforts to remove such personally-identifiable information, provided, however, NLYM shall not be liable to you should it be unable, after such efforts, to identify or remove such information. Due to the dynamic and ever-changing nature of the Interactive Portions of the Site, you acknowledge and agree it may be impossible for NLYM to remove your personally-identifiable information from the Interactive Portions of the Site. You therefore should be very careful about providing any personally identifying information using the Interactive Portions of the Site.

5. Children

NLYM is committed to protecting the privacy of children. Neither NLYM nor any of its services are designed or intended to attract children under the age of 13. NLYM does not collect personally-identifiable information from any person that NLYM knows to be under the age of 13.

6. Security

NLYM has put in place reasonably appropriate physical, electronic, and/or procedural safeguards to protect your personally-identifiable information. However, even with such measures, no one is able to guarantee that unauthorized Third Parties will not be able to bypass these measures or otherwise capture such information. NLYM shall not be liable to you for any Third Party's unauthorized access to or use of your personally-identifiable information.
